At a young age, Linda Weddle told family and friends that she planned to be a writer, a pastor's wife and a graduate of Moody Bible Institute. She's accomplished all three—and more. Linda's vast and varied experience as a teacher, curriculum writer and ministry leader makes her an important voice on ministry to children, youth and families.

Linda is also a prolific author. Most recently she wrote How to Raise a Modern-Day Joseph: A Practical Guide to Raising Great Kids. The book is a follow-up to Raising a Modern-Day Joseph by Larry Fowler that was released in 2008. How to Raise a Modern-Day Joseph is a hands-on companion piece to the overarching spiritual development strategy offered in Raising a Modern-Day Joseph.
